⁶ These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. ⁷ Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. ⁸ Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. ⁹ Write them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates.

Deuteronomy 6:7-9

Dear Westfield Baptist Church,

As we step into the month of June, I want to express my heartfelt gratitude for your dedication and participation in our journey through the book of Colossians. It has been an enriching experience, and I'm excited to share some key takeaways that have deeply impacted me throughout this study.

Christ is God and His Gospel is Complete

From the very first chapter of Colossians, Paul makes it abundantly clear: Christ is the fullness of God, and His Gospel is complete. There is no need nor benefit to adding to or subtracting from Christ's Gospel. Everything we need to be made right with God, to enter His heavenly presence, and to walk in obedience is provided through the Gospel. This truth has anchored us, reminding us of the sufficiency and supremacy of Christ in all things.

Colossians 2:9-10 says, "For in Him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, and you have been filled in Him, who is the head of all rule and authority." These verses encapsulate the essence of our faith: in Christ, we are complete. He is our everything, and His work on the cross is all-encompassing. Let us hold firmly to this truth, trusting in the finished work of Christ for our salvation and daily living.

True, Sincere Believers Walk in a Manner Worthy of Christ

Another profound takeaway from our study is the transformative power of the Gospel. To be genuinely converted is to be changed. True, sincere believers walk in a manner worthy of Christ. This Christ-like walk permeates every aspect of our lives, including our relationships within the church and our families.

Paul exhorts us in Colossians 3:12-17 to put on compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience. He calls us to forgive as the Lord has forgiven us and to let the peace of Christ rule in our hearts. This is the mark of a true believer—one who clings to Christ's Gospel and lives out its implications daily.

In our homes, this means loving and serving our spouses, children, and parents with the love of Christ. In our church, it means building one another up, bearing with one another, and striving for unity. As we conclude our study of Colossians, let's commit to walking in a manner that dignifies our Lord, reflecting His grace and truth in all our interactions.

Looking Ahead

As we wrap up our study of Colossians, I encourage you to reflect on these truths and let them shape your walk with Christ. Let us continue to grow in our understanding of His Word and deepen our commitment to living out His Gospel in every area of our lives. Let's carry the lessons we've learned into the coming months, striving to glorify Christ in all we do.

Your kindness to Amber, the kiddos and I has been overwhelming. You have made us feel so welcome here at WBC. We're excited to see what God is going to do next.

In Christ,
Pastor Blake

A Note from Tricia

Hi Friends,

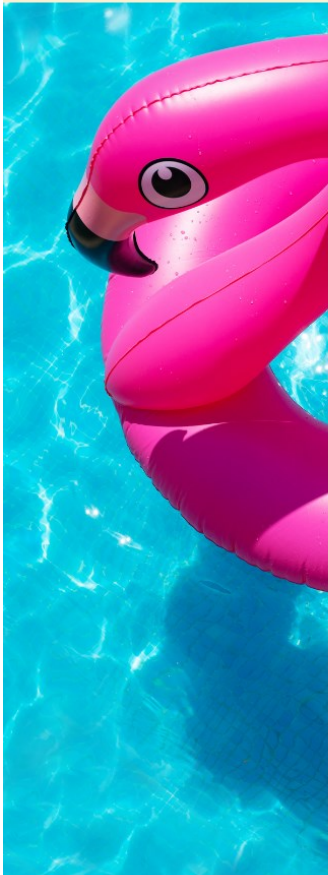

I hope your summer is off to a great start! Our Kids and Student Ministries are in full summer mode with fun events, lunch gatherings, and studying God's Word together. We gave out our summer calendar a few weeks ago and our kids and students are so excited for our Terrific Tuesdays and Wednesday Night Live! If you haven't picked up a calendar, let me know and I'll make sure to get you a copy.

One of my personal focuses this summer is to build up relationships with our students and kids. As we continue to grow, I don't get to spend as much time getting to know each of them as I would like. So each week, I plan a lunch and activity with a small group of 3-4 students. It's been so fun to hang out with them and getting to see their personalities shine. If I haven't made plans with your kids or students yet, let me know when a good week for your family is and I will make it happen.

I'm looking forward to VBS next week and then Centri-Kid camp the following week. I'm thankful for volunteers like Travis Taylor who is willing to go to camp with me and our group of elementary boys! Will you join me in prayer for our week of camp to go well, everyone to stay safe, and grow in our personal relationships with Christ.

Thank you for your continued support and encouragement!

Tricia Lowe
